Army National Guard Active Guard Reserve Standards and Procedures (SOP)

1. Effective immediately, the California Army National Guard Active Guard Reserve (AGR) Standards and Procedures (SOP), dated 15 March 2003, is abolished and reference to such is discontinued.
2. Currently, AR 135-18, Active Guard and Reserve Program, has been revised and is pending final review and determination through the United States Army JAG office. The projected publication of AR 135-18 will integrate all current AGR policies and procedures that have taken effect since our last SOP was published. Until the release of this regulation, commands will use the current AR 135-18, NGR 600-5, and policies from NGB or the G1.
3. Upon publication of the AR 135-18, this office will accordingly staff a new California Army National Guard AGR SOP.
4. Point of contact is CW4 Dominic D. DeNiro, AGR Branch Manager, at (916) 854-3403.
